

Book Contents

1. Introduction

What is Post-Christendom?

2. Christendom, Youth Work and Young People

The Mindset?

The Context

Sundays!

History

Personality and Priesthood

Professional and Postmodern Youth Workers

Youth Work Programmes

Don't Rock the Boat

School's Work

Colonial Youth Work?

Summer Festivals

Closing Thoughts

3. Young People, Life and Spirituality

Respect

Achievements

Behaviour

Health

Expectations

Opportunities

Religion and Spirituality

Other Faith Groups

View from the Margins

Hope

What are the 'Whys?'

Reflections

4. Mission: Reaching Young People After Christendom

Integration

The Mission of God

The Homogenous Unit Principle

Incarnational Mission

The Message

Social Action

Community

What Will Prevail?

5. Resourcing Youth Work After Christendom

Location, Location, Location

Imagine All the People

Social Capital

Heroes of the Faith

Technology

New Ideas

6. Church Youth Work After Christendom

Process or Product

Growing Church as a Process

Working Within the Existing Church

Being Open-Edged and Engaging with Contemporary Culture

Nurturing Authentic Friendships and Healthy Community

Cultivating an Earthed Spirituality

Being Participative, Inclusive and Empowering

Holding Deep Convictions but Being Unfazed by Questions

Stimulating Faith Development at Every Stage of the Journey

7. And Finally...

Book Launch

8 July 2008

11.00-3.00

Birmingham

Anabaptist Network
Frontier Youth Trust
Midlands Centre for Youth
Ministry

nigel.pimlott@ntlworld.com

www.fyt.org.uk

07940 54 54 69

j.pimlott@stjohns-nottm.ac.uk

0115 968 3222